TSUCHI NO KOE ESTATE CABERNET SAUVIGNON

WINEMAKER'S NOTES

The 2021 Tsuchi No Koe cabernet sauvignon is perfumed and enticing, with aromas of dark and red berries contrasted by savory black olive, espresso, cedar and minerals. Full tannins frame the powerful wine, with a dense core of luscious fruit and savory, earthy complexity.

VINIFICATION PROCESS

Only the best portions of the organically farmed Meadowbrook Estate Vineyard were selected. The fruit was harvested and sorted by hand, fermented in small steel tanks, and aged 20 months in a combination of new and used Taransaud and Bousset French oak barrels.

STORY

Japanese for "Voice of the Land", Tsuchi No Koe represents our reverence for nature. The mythical kirin emblazoned on the bottle is said to only appear before those with a kind heart and stands as a guardian of the earth, signifying peace, prosperity, and a bountiful harvest.
